MARRIES HUSBAND TWICE
 Second Time Mrs. Swartz Fails to Get Divorce from Other Hubby.
 THIS IS HER THIRD STAGGER
 Leaving Second Husband, She Goes Back to First and Her Third Marriage is Performed in Kansas Penitentiary Office.

Mrs. Katherine Swartz, testifying in behalf of the government against her husband, Horace Swartz, who is being tried for violation of the Mann act, admitted on cross-examination that she married her husband a second time in the office of the warden of the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing, without securing a divorce from her second husband.
 Mrs. Swartz has been married three times, according to her testimony. When Horace Swartz was her first and third husband, shot her and another man at Hutchinson, Kan., in 1909, he was tried and sentenced to the Kansas penitentiary for ten years. Mrs. Swartz secured a divorce and married a man who she described as "an Englishman." Life with the Englishman wasn't all peaches and cream, so she deserted him, and exerted herself to secure a parole for Swartz.
 She received her first husband's parole and went with the parole to the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing, was married to Swartz a second time, in the warden's office, although she had neglected to obtain a divorce from her second husband.

Mrs. Swartz on the witness stand testified that she and Swartz had gone from city to city, living for a time in town, and then moving to the country, and that on several occasions her husband had told her to go to the streets and get money.
 Because of the fact that Swartz was released from the Kansas penitentiary on a parole instead of a pardon, he cannot under the ruling of Judge McPherson, take the witness stand in his own defense, and the case will go to the jury without Swartz being permitted to tell his story. Practically no testimony can be offered for the defense, according to attorneys for Swartz.

Swartz insists that he tried to get his wife to go to the country to live, but that she refused to do so. He further insists, in an interview, that she was having him prosecuted to prevent his having suit started against her on the bigamy charge. Swartz insists that he did not know the facts of the case until some months after he had married his wife the second time.
 Commentaries exercises for the graduates of the Nebraska School for the Deaf will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the school auditorium, with ten students graduating. Senator J. H. Kemp in City for the Day
 State Senator J. H. Kemp of Fullerton spent Friday afternoon in Omaha mixing business and politics. Mr. Kemp is out for the republican nomination for governor, and while here called upon his competitor, Ross Hammond, just to show that there was no ill feeling. The senator is thoroughly convinced that conditions point to a republican victory in the election this year.

TO DECIDE ON CHURCH PLANS THURSDAY EVENING
 Final consideration of the plans for the new First Presbyterian church will occur Thursday evening. The building and plans committee will meet at the church to approve the work of Architect George B. Prinz, before the plans are referred to the congregation for acceptance. When the congregation meets for the purpose soon after, stereopticon slides will be projected to show all the details of the plans.

MOTORISTS FINDING OMAHA IS GOOD PLACE TO STOP
 Motorists who are making long tours through the country have found that Omaha is a good stopping point enroute. Reliable information as to roads, hotel accommodations, points of interest and best routes between cities is available at the hotels and the office of the Lincoln highway. A highway branch information bureau is also maintained at the Henshaw hotel for the convenience of autoists.

ALLEN DOES NOT OPPOSE INCREASED RAIL RATES
 Secretary Thomas Allen of the Beatrice Commercial club did not actually go on record as favoring or opposing the proposed 5 per cent increase in freight rates, when he spoke before the Omaha Interstate Commerce club Wednesday. He confined his remarks on the question to a resume of the arguments on both sides. His main discussion was on the subject of freight classification.
